A suplex is an offensive move used in both professional and amateur wrestling. It is a throw that involves lifting the opponent and bridging or rolling to slam the opponent on their back.. Professional wrestling features many different varieties of suplexes. The following are among the most common, but many more exist, particularly as the signature techniques of individual wrestlers.

not quite 100% sure, but I think it all depends on how you have classed yourself. That is, if there is a written contract of employment between yourself and the entity you created, you are classed as an employee and would thereby need to pay yourself a wage and also pay tax and NIC if your wage went beyond the respective thresholds.

The United States is a federal republic. The federal government of the United States is set up by the Constitution. There are three branches. They are the executive branch, the legislative branch, and the judicial branch. State governments and the federal government work in very similar ways. Each state has its own executive, legislative, and judicial branches.
